

TIMELESS HOSPITALITY SERVED IN UNMISSABLE LOCATIONS

London has it all – Roman ruins, a Medieval street layout and the opulence of the empire. Through centuries of strife, fire, fabulous wealth, grinding poverty and political upheaval, Londoners have retired to their beloved pubs to swap stories, share the news and laugh away their troubles.

On a Nicholson's Ale Trail you see London hospitality at its best – and just as our founder, William Nicholson, envisaged it. In the polished wood, gleaming brass, decorative tiles, etched glass and wrought ironwork of a Nicholson's pub, you see the true heart of the city.

THEATRELAND

This trail covers our charming pubs in the Covent Garden, London's oldest theatre scene. In between pubs, explore the fine array of small, intersecting streets and the Piazza with its resident street entertainers. Here you'll find the Royal Opera House and if you drop by one of the pubs on the trail, you might find performers 'loosening their vocal chords' before a show.

OUR HISTORY

William Nicholson. Distiller, politician, cricket player, benefactor and our founder. Since 1873, we've remained true to William's ideals of what a great pub should be: warm and welcoming, where people can live life to the full in beautiful buildings, brimming with character.

Within our historic walls, you'll find a superb range of cask ales from specialist breweries, as well as delicious freshly cooked pub food. Whichever Nicholson's pub you visit, each has its own distinctive warmth, genuine service and vibrant atmosphere.

MORE HIDDEN GEMS TO DISCOVER

Doctor Samuel Johnson once said, "If you've had enough of London, you've had enough of life". While we're pretty sure that you won't have had enough of London, if you do happen to leave the city centre, you can still enjoy a pint of real ale in these pubs.

HISTORIC BLACKFRIARS

This trail takes you to a pub with delightful riverside views. Start with a pint of real ale at Doggett's Coat & Badge, while you take in its rather fine vista over the River Thames at Blackfriars. The trail then takes you through the area of Fleet Street, the historical home of London's journalists, before leading you to the splendid architecture of St. Paul's Cathedral. If you can pull yourself away from the comfort of the pub and cross over the Millennium Bridge to the south side of the river you will find the Tate Modern Gallery and also Shakespeare's Globe Theatre.

LONDON BRIDGE TO TOWER BRIDGE

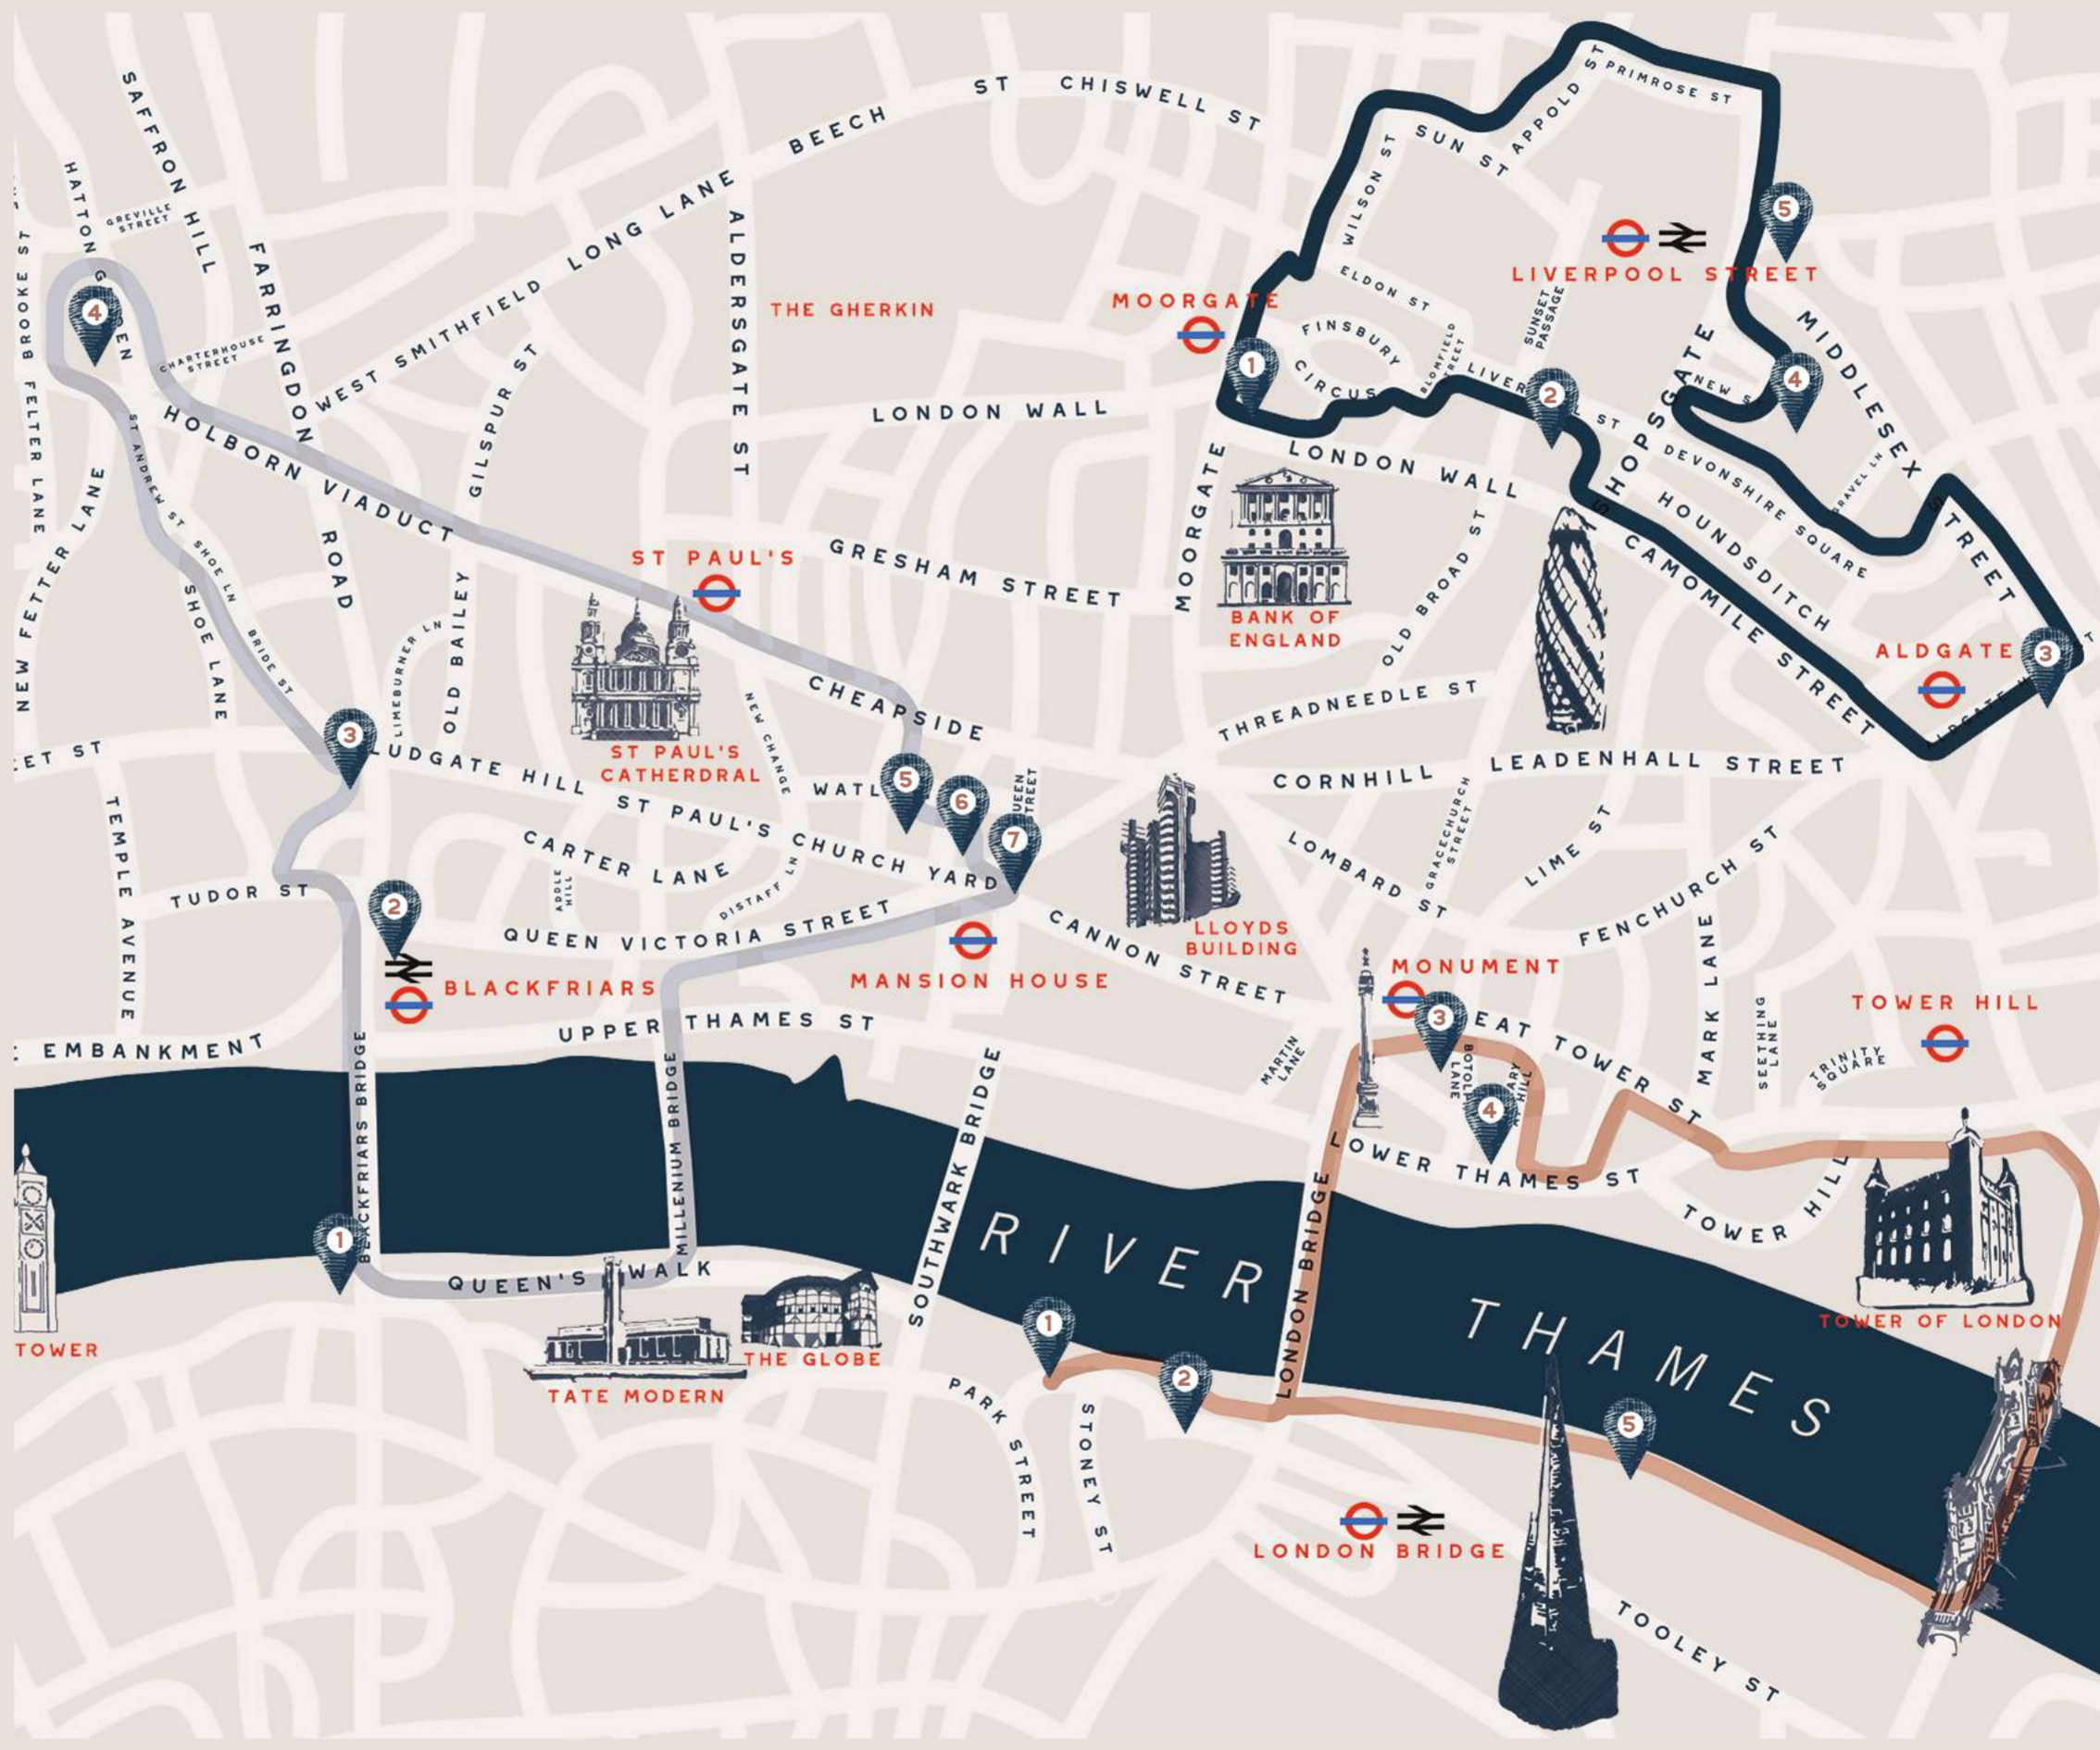

For great views of the Thames, start at the Old Thameside Inn. Just to the south is bustling Borough Market, London's finest source of fresh produce. A cobbled street leads you to The Mudlark, and then across London Bridge to the Monument. Now make your way east towards the Tower of London. After visiting, cross the river again via Tower Bridge and follow the river walk westwards to The Horniman at Hay's.

THE FINANCIAL DISTRICT

Centring on Liverpool Street Station, the old terminus of the Great Eastern Railway, this tour takes you through London's financial district. The City is quite literally buzzing with bankers, traders and financiers Monday to Friday and it can be quite amusing to watch them all milling around, as you enjoy a pint of real ale in the sanctuary of a traditional pub. The area is much quieter at the weekends, but still worth a visit, along with the nearby Spitalfield's market, if you fancy hunting for a bargain.
